Subject: [EXTERNAL] comment Parks and Recreation Commission Tuesday March 18 #2 Senior Services Update
Date: Friday, March 14, 2025 11:01:23 AM

Greetings Morgan Hill Parks and Recreation Commission,
A comment for your Tuesday, March 18, 2025 meeting:
BUSINESS #2. Receive Senior Services Update

I appreciate the breadth of offerings at the Older Adult Center.
City of Morgan Hill web site:
Home/Parks & Recreation/Recreation Facilities/Senior Center

How about some head-counts for the various activities?
What percent of City older adults use the Lunch service and what percent engage in other activities?

Do you have a new Older Adult Services Supervisor?
Ashleigh Bittle, Recreation Services Coordinator, is listed as City Staff Support for the Senior Advisory Committee.

The members of the Senior Advisory Committee are listed on the City web site. Their role is stated as follows:
"The Senior Advisory Committee (SAC) acts as a support to the Senior Center by planning and providing extra activities for learning, transportation, socialization,
and information."

Our first Older Adult Services Supervisor, Debbie Vasquez, told me that minutes of the meetings of the SAC would be posted on the web site. The next Supervisor, Anna Bielecki, said the meetings were not public and minutes would not be posted.

My question is what role does SAC plan in planning for the future?
I have tried and failed for several years to get the City Manager to tell us how the City plans to respond to the changing demographics as the percent of older adults(60+/65+) increases and the percent of children (18-) decreases.

The web page for Senior Center Endowment Fund contains a graphic illustrating these changes

This presentation does not mention the financial contributions from the Friends of Morgan Hill Senior Center and their Tuesday night bingo.
Can they and should they scale up to accommodate growth in our older adult population?

You mention the RYDE Volunteer Driver Program? How many drivers do you have and how many riders use the service? Are our older adults aware of a free offering from Sourcewise in South County?

An unrelated process comment.
